High School Chatter

Well, we've finally found a few moments between dashing and tearing around A. H. S. to settle down long enough to pass a little chatter on to you.

Do you know that song entitled "Route 66?" Well, Bradley Mann has changed that title to "Route 460?" And, we hear that Elizabeth is singing with him.

Betty was down at the post office yesterday having "fragile" stamped all over a package. Could it be her picture en route to Fort Worth?

Dream Girl! Dream Girl! Beautiful, beautiful dream girl. Lois, could you be singing this? After all, you are going to the University to a dance. Have a good time!

We heard that Mrs. Crawley's home room is going to have a play in chapel soon.

Ray, you are rushing the postmasters to death with your Appomattox—Farmville mail.

Some of the basketball girls will have to buy dungarees. Shorts are pretty cold, aren't they, Jo Ann?

Seniors, did you know we had a second Rubenstein in your class? Play for us more often, Miss Johnson, especially that Concerto in Minor.

Guess what I heard a young man say the other day? She said, "We are troubles but how I love him!" Hear that, boys?

Attention: Calling all basketball players! Be on the look out for a week-end! That is all!

We have Miss Ann Wallace's personality this week. Ann is one of our most popular students. H. S. She is on the annual staff, treasurer of the Senior Red Cross Club, historian of her class, a leader and president of the Hi-Y Club. Although small, she has a (I mean singing). She has a lovely soprano voice and contributes much to the school by rendering her services in song. We are proud of Ann and the school will suffer a loss when she leaves A. H. S. for her goals. Good luck, Ann!

APPOMATTOX HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Kick Off

Barbara Ann Johnson, Reporter

What's new with you? Things at A. H. S. are happening right along, day by day.

As the SCA is an important part of our school, we are always glad to hear of their activities. Last Monday they held a meeting during lunch period. At this meeting reports from various committees such as safety, health, program, cleanup and social were given. The student council has decided to meet every Monday at lunch time. The SCA is working hard this year to help the school and students, so let us try to help them and ourselves.

The Home Economics Club initiated new members last week and they did a very good job. If you saw a girl wearing her mother's dress, high heels with miss-matched socks, 30 clothespins in her hair and carrying a broom, she was a F. H. A.!

We are proud of our football boys for defeating Amherst Friday night, 51 to 0. Eli Cawthorn went over for five of our touchdowns, while Bobby Chernault, Henry Doss and Billy Johnston each scored one. This was our last home game of the year, but don't forget we still have a game with WES Saturday and a game at Farmville November 22, so be there and support your team.

The Junior Varsity had a tough break by losing to VFS JV's last Thursday, 7 to 6. Bradley Mann made the A. H. S. touchdown, but later received a fractured collar bone. We hope he will get along all right.

Chapel program Wednesday was very interesting and very different from any we've had this year. Miss Julia Asher was in charge of our program and different students portrayed characters from various books. The audience acted as contestants. We enjoyed the program and hope for more like it.

We hear the boys will start basketball practice this week. The first game is December 1st, with Concord.

The annual staff held a meeting Wednesday. Our editor, Helen Poe, told the editors what pages of the annual would go in on December 4.

Our Spanish class had a time yesterday. We spoke the whole period only in Espanol. I wonder who knew what was said! I expect Mrs. Cheatham was the only one aware of what was being said.

I will close this week with this quotation: "All excellent things are difficult as they are rare."
